The Bon Ton Musical company, headed by that clever little comedian, Nat Farnum, will be the attraction at Nat Farmum, will be the attraction at the Auditorium theatre all next week, starting Menday matinee. The opening bill for Monday and Tuesday will be Hello, France, full of real clean fun, and big musical numbers. The chorus, the Dancing Dolis, one of the best new in musical comedy, full of life, pep, singer and good looks. They will be also be the Auditorium feature pictures shown at every performance.

Today is your last chance to see Lewis and Marks and the Oh, Girls Lewis and Marks and the On, Girls Comedy Company, in a very funny playlet, Cabaret De Luxe. This is a abow of surprises and full of good comedy and the latest song hits. The pictures on today's bill are exceptional. The Flaming Omen, a Vitagraph Blue Ribbon feature, starring Mary Anderson and Alfred Whitman, is well derson and Alfred walliston alone, but the price of admission alone. Wife's Husband is the title of the supplies comedy and it is a wew Sunshine comedy and it is a scream. Remember, four shows to-day, 1.30, 3, 6.15 and 8.15.

DAVIS THEATRE

Four Shows Today, at 1.30, 3.15, 6 and 8 p. m .- Three Big Keith Vaudeville Acts and Enid Bennett in Naughty-Naughty, 5-Part Comedy-

There will be four complete shows at the Davis today and the feature attraction is MacRae and Clegg, refined comedy cyclists, the intruder and the Queen of the Wheel. This is one of the best acts in vaudeville and has made a big hit the last two days. Burns and Kissen, a pair of songwriting entertainers who present an up to the minute singing offering. The third act is Brennan and Davis in a comedy singing, talking and dancing novelty. The photoplay feature is finite Bennett in her latest Paramount comedy, Naughty-Naughty, a five-part line production. Current Events with all the latest pictures of the American boys in France completes the shoer.

COMING NEXT WEEK

Wm. S. Hart in His Latest Six-part Arteraft Feature, Blue Blazes Raw-

"Blue Blazes" Rawden, with Wm. S. Hart in the title role, will be the attraction at the Davis theatre on Monday. Tuesday and Wednesday. This will be the fourth appearance of This will be the fourth appearance of the famous ince star in Arteraft pictures, and presents him in the role of a hardy lumberjack in the frozen wilds of the Canadian Northwest. In place of the familiar western outfit is a figure clad in blanket coat and fur, and the hard-riding western types are replaced by habitues of the resort maintained by a renegade Englishman to separate the timbermen glishman to separate the timbermen from their hard-carned wages.

According to Hart, who directed the production in addition to playing the little role, the absence of horses was not relished by the men who practically live in the saddle in California, and who performed the bard work of fraging sleighs by hand along the Iralis. Blue Blazes Rawden was written for Hart by J. G. Hawks, and is unique in that there is no love story iralis. Blue Blazes Rawden was writ-ten for Hart by J. G. BREED THEATRE

Four Shows Today, at 1.30, 3, 6.15 and 8.15-The Sign Invisible, a Drama of Indescribable Power and Pathos, Featuring Mitchell Lewis, Today's

Today is the last chance to see The Sign Invisible, with all its thrills and pathos. It is the last day to see Mitpathos. It is the last day to see Mit-chell Lewis in his six feet of graceful strength as Lone Deer, the Canadian "breed", whose primitive heart has a finer appreciation of nature's beau-ty and the immutability of Providence than fnost so-called "civilized" men. who enjoy having their nervethrilled, hearts touched and sense of the beautiful delighted should by all

Other pictures on the bill include Charlie Chaplin in The Tramp, a rear-ing two-part comedy, and the Hearst-Pathe News. As usual there will be four shows today, at 1.30, 3, 6.15 and $.15.

AT THE DAVIS SUNDAY M. McLean Goldie, Just Returned From Russia.

The Young Men's Christian Asso elation has arranged a meeting which will be of great interest to the peo-ple of Norwich. The meeting will be held in Davis theatre at 4 o'clock on Sunday afternoon, April 14th. On this eccasion M. McLean Goldle, who has recently returned from Russia, will tell a most interesting story of his experiences and will give his eninden of the final result of the revenition. Mr. Goldie was in Russia during the revolution, and the information he gives will be first hand and therefore of real value to the multic mation he gives will be first hand and therefore of real value to the public. The local Y. M. C. A., knowing the keen interest in this subject on the part of both men and women, has decided to invite both sexes to attend. The doors of the Davis will be opened at 2.30 sharp, and Swahn's orchestra will play until 4 o'clock when the meeting proper will begin. Admission is free to all.
